About AJINOMOTO

The Ajinomoto Group is a pioneer company in manufacturing food products and producing amino acids based on the founding aspiration of 'Eat Well, Live Well'. Established in 1909, Ajinomoto is the founder of Umami, which is one of the five basic tastes along with sweetness, saltiness, sourness and bitterness. Ajinomoto aims to improve food culture and human health throughout the years with its advanced R&D on amino acid technologies and relentlessly works to find solution to 'Global Sustainability', 'Food Resources' and 'Healthy Living'. The Ajinomoto Group is currently active in over 135 countries & regions.

Ajinomoto opened its office in Turkey in 2011, and since then continues to grow with strong acquisitions and investments. In 2013, Ajinomoto acquired 50 percent stake in Kükre Gıda A.Ş., a reputable liquid sauce and pickles producer, and the remaining 50 percent in 2017. The same year Ajinomoto also acquired 100 percent of Örgen Gıda A.Ş., a very well-known powder food producer in Turkey.

Ajinomoto is currently among Turkey's one of the most important food producers within 7 different categories such as soups, bouillon, meal mixes, seasonings, powder desserts, vinegars and sauces under strong Turkish brands "Bizim Mutfak" and "Kemal Kükre".

Turkey's growth potential is the key factor for Ajinomoto to increase its capacity with new investments and establish Turkey as a regional hub for surrounding geography within 3 to 5 years.
